

a statement

CONTEMPTIBLE LETTERS

Christians and Muslims stand together in solidarity against the contemptible letters sent to Muslim households in different parts of the country, causing anxiety and distress.

All hate crime should be reported to the police immediately.

We affirm the value of positive relationships across religious and cultural boundaries and encourage people from all parts of society to work together to promote human flourishing.

Inciting violence and attempting to create fear and division will not break the strong bonds of friendship and collaboration between us.

Bishop Paul Hendricks, Shaykh Ibrahim Mogra, Anjum Anwar MBE, Bishop Toby Howarth (Trustees) Miqdaad Versi, Qari Muhammad Asim MBE, Aliya Azam MBE, Julie Siddiqi, Dr Carlis Douglas and The Reverend David Musgrave.

11 March 2018